Water Youth Parliament

The "Regional Youth Conference on Water Solutions – Rajshahi Division" is a youth led initiative aiming to address the critical water challenges in the Rajshahi Division, with a focus on drought and river restoration. The conference seeks to engage 150 youth participants from diverse backgrounds, providing them with a platform to identify problems, propose solutions, and collaborate with experts. The outcomes will be documented in a comprehensive report to guide future policymaking and sustainable water management efforts.

The Event

Event Name: Divisional Youth Conference on Water Solutions

Event Date: February 27, 2025

Event Objectives:

1. To identify and prioritize water-related issues in the Rajshahi Division, particularly focusing on drought and river restoration.
2. To empower youth by involving them in the process of solution generation and decision-making.
3. To establish a platform for dialogue between youth and water management experts.
4. To produce a policy-oriented report summarizing key findings and recommendations.
